Arts Experience:

Creativity Corner does not have a competitive acceptance process. However, we would like you to list out what activities and/ or what types of lessons in the Arts your child has had so we can try to meet the children at their skill level.

Which of the arts are taught at your child's school? How many years have they been a part of these classes?

Does your child read music or have they had any formal music lessons? If so, for how long and with what instrument?

Has your child taken any art lessons? If so, for how long and exploring what techniques and mediums?

Other related activities your child has been a part of to give him/her exposure to the arts:
